Finally the HoStress on stage!

Thanks to them, everything will be easier.

Always smiling and eager to give direction on how to comport oneself in various contexts, the HoStress prepare the public to be polite and respectful of their environment and of others, without forgetting that touch of irreverent madness.

They have a soundtrack for every occasion, and strictly a cappella.

Bursting, harmonious, and full of surprises, they have a soundtrack for every occasion! Through the most famous rock and pop songs, the HoStress captivate and include the audience in a very, very special journey.
